Summary

Jeremy is an experienced litigator and dispute resolution specialist. He has expertise in commercial, insolvency, equity and trust law. For the past seven years' Jeremy has led the Dispute Resolution team at Wynn Williams.

Jeremy can quickly grasp a legal situation and provide accurate, commercially realistic advice at short notice. He is frequently instructed to appear as counsel in the courts and before arbitral tribunals. In the past year he has appeared as senior counsel in more than half a dozen hearings and has also appeared as junior counsel with some of New Zealand's leading barristers. As part of his practice he also often undertakes discreet work for high profile individuals and families.

Jeremy is recognised as being a leader in his field by The Legal 500 Asia Pacific 2019, and is also recognised by the Chambers Asia-Pacific 2019 and Chambers Global 2019 legal guides. He is recommended for his "outstanding service" with "the client-handling skills to make a top-class litigator". One client describes him as an "excellent strategic litigator and thinker. He is very responsive and well regarded by other practitioners, which makes negotiations more streamlined".

Previous directories said that Jeremy is "in a league of his own", "an excellent young lawyer who has a sharp intellect, and is a good tactician and a very good communicator. His approach in court is courteous and disarming" while one impressed client enthused that he is "probably the most outstanding young lawyer I have ever met".

In addition Jeremy is a recognised leader in the community and has considerable governance experience.
